

PRESENT SIMPLE

tense

WHEN TO USE?

We use the Present Simple for routines, facts, and general truths.

EXAMPLES:

- * I read a book every night.
- * Water boils at 100 degrees Celsius.
- * The Earth revolves around the Sun.

HOW TO USE?

POSITIVE STRUCTURE:

I
You
We + eat + lunch.
They

He
She + eats + lunch at school.
It

ATTENTION!

The verb is used in its base form for the subjects I, You, We, They.

The verb takes an -s, -es, or -ies ending for the subjects He, She, It.

EXAMPLES:

- * I eat dinner, watch TV, and study Math after school.
- * He eats dinner, watches TV, and studies Math after school.

HOW TO USE?

NEGATIVE STRUCTURE:

I
You + don't + eat
We
They

He
She + doesn't + eat lunch.
It

ATTENTION!

The subjects I, You, We, They take don't before the verb.

The subjects He, She, It take doesn't before the verb.

The subject is always in its base form in negative sentences!

EXAMPLE:

* I don't like broccoli. My sister doesn't like it either.

HOW TO USE?

QUESTION STRUCTURE:

Do + I
you
we
they + eat

Does + he
she + eat lunch?
it

ATTENTION!

The subjects I, You, We, They take do before them.

The subjects He, She, It take does before them.

The subject is always in its base form in questions!

EXAMPLES:

* Do you speak German?

* Does she speak German?

ADVERBS OF FREQUENCY

We usually use the following adverbs of frequency with the Present Simple Tense:

- * never
- * rarely
- * sometimes
- * often
- * usually
- * always

EXAMPLES:

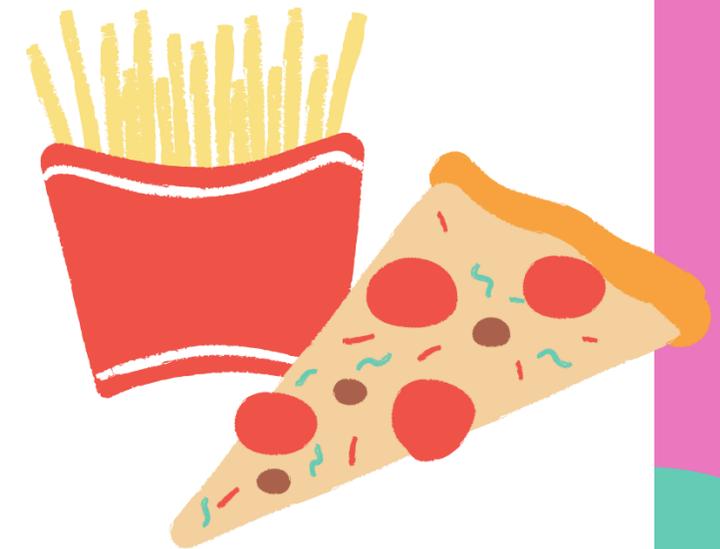

I never forget to do my homework.

My mum rarely orders pizza.

They often go to the cinema.

I usually play soccer with my dad.

He always studies hard before exams.

THANK YOU

for listening!